

ORPHAN WELL PROGRAM PUBLIC NOTICE

 ATTENTION: Plugging of Oil and Gas Wells ***

Ohio Department of Natural Resources
 Division of Oil and Gas Resources Management
 January 22, 2014

Do you have a valid interest in one of the oil and gas wells listed below, or the equipment appurtenant to any of these wells?

The Orphan Well Program is responsible for plugging improperly abandoned oil and gas wells when no owner or other responsible party can be located. Additional information may be found at oilandgas.ohiodnr.gov/citizens/orphan-well-program.

If you believe that you have a valid interest in an oil and gas well or the equipment appurtenant to a well listed below, contact the Division of Oil and Gas Resources Management within 10 days of the posting of this notice. Claims of ownership, along with proper documentation demonstrating a valid ownership interest, should be sent to the following:

Ohio Department of Natural Resources
 Division of Oil and Gas Resources Management
 2207 Reiser Avenue
 New Philadelphia, Ohio 44663
 (330) 308-0007

The wells listed below are being considered for plugging by the Division:
